

SLADE HOUSES (& OLD STATE BANK)
MACON, GEORGIA

HABS NO. GA-168

HABS

GA.

11. MACO

9.

See GA.
11-MACO
10-

PHOTOGRAPHS

~~WRITTEN HISTORIC AND DESCRIPTIVE DATA~~

DISTRICT OF GEORGIA

HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

HAROLD BUSH-BROWN, DISTRICT OFFICER
GEORGIA SCHOOL OF TECHNOLOGY, ATLANTA, GEORGIA

Old State Bank
Walnut Street
Macon, Bibb Co.
Georgia

HAES No. GA-168

HAES
GA.

11- MACO

10-

PHOTOGRAPHS

District of Georgia

WRITTEN HISTORIC AND DESCRIPTIVE DATA

HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY
Harold Bush-Brown, District Officer
Georgia School of Technology, Atlanta, Georgia

SLADE HOUSES & OLD STATE BANK
Macon, Bibb County, Georgia
453 Walnut Street

Owner: Paul Damour owns house. Mr. and Mrs. Walker own Old State Bank and use as residence.

Date of Erection: 1827 or before.

Architect - Builder:

Present Condition: Run down.

Number of Stories: Both house and servant's house at rear, - two story. Bank one story. Faces south. Extension of porch on house on west side added later.

Materials of Construction: Houses have foundation of brick. Wood floors. Exterior walls of brick. Interior walls frame and plaster. Shingle roof. The old Bank has brick foundation, exterior walls brick with stucco lined. Shingle roof.

Other Existing Records: Bibb County, Georgia Deed Book B pp 162,280 - Book C p 43.

Additional Data: Houses have simple brick cornice with brick dentils, gable roof and end chimneys. One story entrance stoop, once apparently double. Separate doorways with fanlights (no sidelights). Steps to each house. Old mantel in front room in house on east. Front windows paneled below and window trim carries to floor.

The old State Bank may have been built earlier, connected with house to west with a door. Has pediment roof. The old servants' cottage and kitchen in rear has pitch roof, the gable extending over exterior wood stair.

Houses built by John Crane and have brick party wall between extending as garden wall through garden to rear alley.

East house sold to Marmaduke D. J. Slade and Gro. Smith in 1828, and is probably oldest house in Macon. Slade sold same to Bank of the State of Georgia in 1829. The west house being owned at that time by Simri Rose. In 1830 Simri Rose bought from Slade the east house and servants' house and kitchen which had been deeded back to Slade by Bank for $2400.00. The southeast corner of lot occupied by Bank was owned by Bank of State of Georgia and not included in this sale. The present owners of bank are Mr. and Mrs. Walker. Asher Ayers bought the west half in 1858 and the Ayers Estate still owns it.

Harold Bush-Brown

HAROLD BUSH-BROWN

DISTRICT OFFICER-HABS

Feb 10, 1937

3/10/37 - NW